• Course Aim:

The Manaaki Tāpoi Introduction course aims to celebrate the importance of cultural (indigenous) tourism. Learning will focus on key elements of the Māori culture and how they are interpreted in cultural tourism experiences. Students will gain an appreciation for the high regard that the Māori culture is held in by overseas visitors and will have opportunity to interact with these visitors.

• Learning Objectives:

Students will have the opportunity to achieve the following objectives:

Academic Objectives:

- Explain kaitiakitanga practices in a tourism context
- Explain the use of tikanga Māori as part of exercising kaitiakitanga
- Describe whanaungatanga in relation to the way Māori interact with the natural world
- Describe whanaungatanga in relation to a local Māori environmental management system
- Prepare wharekai for service, as part of a team, in accordance with kawa and tikanga
- Serve kai, as part of a team, in accordance with kawa and tikanga
- Clear tables, as part of a team, in accordance with kawa and tikanga
- Clear wharakai after service, as part of team, in accordance with kawa and tikanga
- Explain the importance of Māori place names in tourism
- Present a short mihi and poroporoaki in te reo Māori with local tikanga

Personal and Social Development Objectives:

- Increasing willingness to learn
- Understanding and assuming personal responsibility
- Developing belief in self and increasing confidence
- Developing a positive attitude
- Recognising and developing potential
- Developing resilience skills (coping with challenge and change)
- Developing positive communication skills

"The Whenua Iti Way or kaupapa is core to the outdoor education approach which links to te ao Māori and tikanga Māori. This is seen in the inclusive approach to education and relationships to whānau contributing to parity and high rates of achievement and success for all learners."
